

As a computer science teacher and a citizen, I object to the invasion of privacy due to wiretapping VOIP and the Internet. It violates due process, search and seizure laws and so many other constitutional rights. Totalitarian governments have gone down similar pathways. A surveillance society is a clear precursor to such a government.